

Subject-Verb and Pronoun-Antecedent Agreement	What's the Subject? S or P?	What's the Verb? S or P?	S-V Agree? ✓ or ✗	What's the Pronoun? S or P?	P-A Agree? ✓ or ✗
1. Some of the club members haven't paid his or her dues.
2. Luis plans to lend the two records he bought by Natalie Cole to me
3. Someone on the bus is leaving their briefcase on the seat.
4. Everyone who receives high grades are eligible for the scholarship.
5. The League of Women Voters have both men and women in its group.
6. Neither of those books is available in the school library, but the bookstore has them.
7. If anyone knows the answer, will they please speak up
8. Several of the band members have forgotten their instruments.

Write a ✓ in the blank if the entire sentence is correct.

Write an ✗ in the blank if the sentence contains errors.

- _____ 11. Neither my brother nor my dad were surprised to hear that Aunt Bonnie is going to Africa next month as a Peace Corp volunteer.
- _____ 12. First, she and the other members of the Kenya group gathers in Philadelphia for a few days of orientation.
- _____ 13. Their focus at this point are to meet one another and get acquainted.
- _____ 14. Then the whole group travels together to Nairobi, Kenya, where everyone will have their last chance for a hot shower.
- _____ 15. After one night in Nairobi, half of them leaves for the town of Naivasha for eleven weeks of cultural sensitivity training.
- _____ 16. Each of the volunteers live with a Kenyan family during this period of training.
- _____ 17. The close daily contact will help each volunteer learn Swahili, one of the languages spoken in Kenya.
- _____ 18. Bonnie doesn't know exactly where in Kenya she will be posted.
- _____ 19. She, as well as other members of her group, expect to be assigned to the area of greatest need.
- _____ 20. No one in the group has been told their specific job assignment, but Bonnie says she will probably be helping Kenyans develop small businesses.